

American Collegiate Rowing Association 2010 National Championship

Oklahoma City, OK – The American Collegiate Rowing Association is pleased to announce and recognize the winners of the 2010 National Championship Regatta. Races were held in windy conditions on the Oklahoma River in Oklahoma City. Many thanks to the people of the Chesapeake Boathouse, and the exceptional refereeing team who helped execute the event in challenging conditions. The 2010 regatta was that largest since ACRA's inception in 2008, with 1130 athletes competing in 190 crews, representing 48 programs, mostly U.S. collegiate club teams. Champions of each of the events are as follows:
